

University of British Columbia, Vancouver (Adult)

Program Director
Donald F. Stark, MD, FRCPC

Address
Suite 207
3195 Granville Street
Vancouver, BC
Phone: (604) 734-4848
Fax: (604) 732-4819

Major Goals of Training Program

This program is designed to provide comprehensive training in adult and pediatric clinical immunology and allergy, qualify for certification in American Board of Allergy and Immunology and the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada Certification as a specialist in this field.

Trainees Accepted Each Year

1

Duration of Fellowship

2 Years

Number of Graduates Last 5 Years and Subsequent Career Choice

None - new program

Application Deadline

Please refer to the Canadian Resident Matching Service \(CaRMS\) website for fellowship match information in regards to the fellowship timeline, application deadlines and additional important dates.

Joint Residency (Fellowship) Availability

Not currently

Electives for Residents and Students

By special arrangements

Special Requirements

Residents must have completed 3 years of internal medicine training first